Alternates should report when the event is called. If a swimmer has not reported after the third call, and an alternate has been called, the original swimmer and any previously called alternate are deemed irrevocably scratched from that event.

Note: Marshalling will not be required for Divisions 4 and up. Swimmers will be responsible for reporting to their events.

RELAYS: No more than 1 “O” swimmer on each relay team. Swimmers may swim on a relay team of a higher division. Relays will be swum as timed finals.

Relay team lists must be written on the back of the entry card and handed in to the Clerk of Course by 10:00 am each morning.

Washrooms in the Livestock Pavilion will be open 24 hours a day. Due to the wedding there will no camping in the AG-REC Hall parking area.

All participants are reminded that the Agassiz Recreational Fairgrounds is a public facility and the consumption of alcohol is strictly prohibited. Open flame camp fires are not allowed on the Fairgrounds.

NOTE: The PA system will not operate until 8:00 a.m. as a courtesy to the neighbouring residents. Marshalling will begin at approx. 8:00 a.m. Please inform your swimmers at warm-ups so that they are aware and proceed to marshalling by 7:50 a.m. for the first events.

OFFICIALS: In order for the meet to run efficiently and finish at a reasonable hour, we request that all clubs provide as many individuals to work as deck officials. A sign up board will be on deck for all parents willing to help out. Clubs with more than 50 participating swimmers will be required to supply extra help for each shift. Cooperation ensures an enjoyable meet for everyone!
